Thanks!. No I hadn't gotten this ..

I'm pouring through about 3,000 pages of new Dimock data...yes most of it is actually new! including some more well data for the homes of interest so that is the burning item for today..

Attached please find OECA's draft report for discussion during next weeks conference call. OECA has requested our consolidated comments to them by cob tuesday.

It is unclear that this is workable- I would like to suggest that everyone send any corrections or observations to me and cc betty barnes by COB friday so we can pull them together for Bill early's review.

If we are able to get the information compiled and reviewed by Bill we will send our comment to HQ , if not we will be prepared to discuss issues during our video conference that Bill has been made aware of.

Thx!

From last years video conference, I have attached the video conference summary and a table with arrows indicating whether the regions were predicting increases or decreases in trends.
